HISTORY NOTES OF PERRY CEMETERIES

Researched by Mary L. Platko, Historian
Perry Historical Society of Lake County, Ohio
2007

There are two cemeteries that are acknowledged in Perry Township, the Center Road Cemetery and the South Ridge Cemetery. Both presently continue as active burial grounds with the exception that burials at the South Ridge Cemetery are restricted to lot owners only. The future growth of the Center Road Cemetery has been assured with about 24 acres of land to the south and west, which is presently being leased for nursery use until needed. There are no present plans to expand the South Ridge Cemetery.

Cemetery properties are deeded to the Perry Township Board of Trustees and are maintained and supervised by them. Several private cemeteries and burial grounds in Perry have also been known to exist. Information is included elsewhere in this article.

Residents of Perry Township, North Perry Village and the Village of Perry are permitted to purchase cemetery lots at a special resident rate. Non-resident purchases are set at a higher fee.

Currently, there is an estimated 700 veterans buried in Perry's cemeteries dating back to the Revolutionary War and over a total of 6000 burials in all. (2007).

Following are several well-known "famous people" buried in the Center Road Cemetery:

Mona K. Palmer Cline - The remains (ashes) of Mona K. Palmer Cline, 75, an American Indian princess, were buried on October 9, 1986. The Indian name given her was Mahoniaee Au-Paw-Chee-Kaw-Paw-Qua Keokuk. Her first name meant the most beautiful thing that ever lived. The second part meant that name shall live on forever. The last part meant the watchful fox. She was the granddaughter of Chief Thunderwater Henry Palmer who was titular head of Supreme Council of Indian tribes of the U.S and Canada. He lived in Cleveland and died in 1950. The surname of Palmer had been given to her Indian family by the government. Her third husband Ausburn Cline, an Englishman, died in 1976.

Ann Cook Whitman - Mrs. Whitman was born in Perry on June 11, 1908. She attended Perry schools and graduated from Perry High School in 1925. She served as President Eisenhower's confidential secretary from 1952 to 1962 and also served as Vice President Rockefeller's Chief of Staff and confidential secretary during the Gerald Ford administration. She died at the age of 83 on October 15, 1991 in Clearwater, Florida and was buried in the Cook lot on October 30, 1991.

A scholarship honoring the Ann Cook Whitman name for students of Perry High school continues to come from the funds of Whitman's own estate.

James Rutherford -, 92, buried on October 3, 1986, reported to have been the driver for Elliot Ness when he was in the Cleveland area.

PERRY CEMETERIES

Center Road Cemetery - (Sometimes referred to as Center Road Cemetery - Perry Center – Perry Township – Disciples) - located on the southwest corner of the intersection of Center Street and Middle Ridge Road. (Active)

The 1940 WPA map included information that the cemetery was established in 1848. The property was deeded in 1804 to the Disciple Church (now the Christian Church on the corner) by Daniel Parmly and Benjamin Sinclair. (10.5 acres in 1940, WPA)

A list of cemetery stone inscriptions for this cemetery was done around the year of 1929.

The earliest inscription found for the Center Road Cemetery is Ezra Beebe, the first settler of Perry, who died in January, 1813 at the age of 76.

First deed recorded for purchase of graves in Perry Cemetery was issued to Alonzo B. Turney on November 20, 1860 paying $12 for the purchase of 8 graves.

The Cemetery vault located in the middle of Center Road Cemetery was constructed in 1880 to hold bodies in the winter until a grave could be opened when the ground thawed.

Inscriptions on the vault honor the following Civil War Veterans:

B. Bartholomew, H. Brown, Lemuel Ellis, Erastus Gray, T. Hickok, J. Howrey, J. Johnson, Ebenezer Joy, M.O. Mallory, L. Malone, W. Malone, A.H. Nash, Caleb Sweet, G. Tatro.

South Ridge Cemetery - (Sometimes referred to as South Ridge Cemetery - Lane Road – Wright – Methodist) located at the corner of South Ridge Rd. (Rte. 84) and Lane Road, deeded to the Trustees in 1939. (Active to lot owners only).

Land was donated by H. J. Wright's grandfather for cemetery use and for the South Church...

The South Church was later moved from the cemetery property in 1919 across the road to the southwestern corner of River Road and South Ridge Road.

List of cemetery stone inscriptions for this cemetery was done around the year of 1929.

The inscription list shows the earliest burial in the Lane Road Cemetery was Anna Cone, who died in October, 1829.

Private Cemeteries and Burial Grounds in Perry

Lemuel Ellis Cemetery – (River Road -Orcutt Burial Ground) abandoned cemetery located on south side of River Road, east of Turney Road, The 1874 map and the 1940 WPA map information noted the cemetery was established in 1820 and consisted of 0.07 acres. Private property, no public access. (Inactive)

Narrows Road Cemetery – (Axtell Farm Cemetery) – located on the north side of South Ridge Road (St. Rte. 84), west of Narrows Road, 1874 map. Private property, no public access. (Extinct)

Call Road Cemetery – located where Call Road intersects with Casa Bella Drive, north of Middle Ridge, south of North Ridge (US 20) 1874 map. (Extinct)

Parmly Cemetery – located on the south side of Route 20, east of Perry Park Road, 1857 & 1874 map. Property placed on the Ohio Archaeological Inventory in 1994 by the owner and was titled the "Ronke Site". Private property, no public address. (Extinct)

Mayers Woods – located at rear of property at 2496 Antioch Road in North Perry Village. Private property of 1.53 acres with no public access. (Inactive)

Palmer Cemetery – located on the south side South Ridge Rd. (St. Rte 84), closer to River Road on Lot 27 of Palmer farm, information not verified. Private property, no public access. (Extinct)

Burials of some of cemeteries listed above were moved to the Center Road cemetery.

These Rules and Regulations are meant to be guidelines for the efficient operation of our cemeteries. Please remember that certain circumstances outside of our control (weather, staffing issues and other cemetery activities) could make certain deadlines (especially related to holding graveside services/burials) difficult to impossible.

It is always the responsibility of the funeral professional to verify with Perry Township that any request for activities in our cemeteries are approved before scheduling is finalized with families.

Please also note that by definition, notification times include that our staff knows the location of any graves to be utilized for a particular burial.
